A great new addition to the very popular Beading Book Series (TM), this new how-to bead book for children is a great way to introduce children to beads and their many facets! Beads are educational, ornamental and beautiful to work with. This wonderful new book has many projects that children will love - from the simplest for young children to more advanced projects for older children and teens. Beautiful illustrations and bead-related stories and games make this a great rainy day book for hours of fun. There are many step-by-step illustrations and full color photographs. The author writes in a way that children will understand and enjoy. A truly fun book for the entire family! The author is a third-generation bead artist and knows her subject inside out. 52 pages. Be sure to look for the Beading Books Series: The Best Little Beading Book, The Beaded Lampshade Book, The Magical Beaded Medicine Bag Book, The "Knotty" Macrame and Beading Book, The Beaded Watchband Book, The Beaded Jewelry for a Wedding Book, The Children's Beading Book, The Chain and Crystal Book, The Cat Lover's Beaded Project Book, The Wirebending Book, The Beading on Fabric Book and more soon to come! Many of these books are available in kit form, also. There is also a wonderful documentary which complements the series. The Bead Movement is a beautiful program which chronicles man's oldest art form, beads. It is available in 60 minutes, or a 30 min. director's cut.
